

LOVING THE LEAGUE

LUNCHEON, SILENT AUCTION & GUEST SPEAKER

to celebrate the centennial of California women winning the right to vote

Sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Santa Cruz County

Saturday, February 12, 2011 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

University Inn &
Conference Center,
Sierra Room
611 Ocean Street,
Santa Cruz, California

Menu: Buffet of assorted
sandwiches and salad,
fruit and cookies,
lemonade and iced tea.

Silent Auction of Valentine Gifts

$20 including tax
and gratuity.

Attendees will have a chance to win a lovely door prize. Prepaid reservations required by February 5.

Checks payable to LWVSCC.

Mail reservations to:
LWVSCC,
150 Scenic Street,
Santa Cruz, California
95060.

For more information call (831) 662-8845.

Copies of Mr. Cooney's acclaimed book will be available for purchase and signing by the author.

Presentation:
*How California Women Won the Vote
100 Years Ago, and
What It Meant to the Rest of the Country*

Guest Speaker:
Robert P.J. Cooney, Jr., author of Winning the Vote: The Triumph of the American Women Suffrage Movement